Roadmap to Apartheid

[95 min]

S This award-winning documentary takes a detailed look at the apartheid analogy commonly used to describe the Israeli policy of discrimination towards Palestinians.

y Narrated by Alice Walker (author of The Color Purple), Roadmap to Apartheid is as much a historical document of the rise and fall of apartheid in South Africa, as it is a film about why many Palestinians feel they are living in an apartheid system today, and why an increasing number of people around the world agree with them.

n The film compares the many similar laws and tools used by both Israel and apartheid-era South Africa. The audience will see what life is like for Palestinians in the West Bank, Gaza Strip and inside Israel. Combined with archival material and anecdotes from South Africans, the film forms a complete picture as to why the analogy is being used with increasing frequency and potency.

“Roadmap to Apartheid is a harrowing exposé of Israel’s unique system of official discrimination.”

~Naomi Klein

“Roadmap to Apartheid demonstrates for all to see that the use of the term ‘apartheid’ to describe the system of Israeli oppression of the Palestinians ...accurately describes a system condemned by the international community ... Not only does it elevate the viewer’s understanding of the system of Israeli oppression, but it inspires the viewer to want to act in solidarity with the Palestinian people.”

~ Bill Fletcher, Former President of TransAfrica Forum
