Healthcare Movie

[65 min]

The real story of how the health care systems in Canada and the US evolved to be so completely different, when at one point they were essentially the same. Most people under the age of 50, in both countries, are not aware of the intensity of the political struggle that led to the universal medical care system in Canada. Nor are they aware of the public relations campaigns, still active today, that have been prevalent in the United States since the early 1900's to dissuade the public from supporting national health care.

"In my crusade to educate our local public about the health care situation, I haven't found a better vehicle than this movie." ~Dwight Michael, M.D.

Park Avenue

[59 min]

740 Park Avenue, Manhattan, is one of the most exclusive addresses in the world, home to some of the richest Americans, the 1% of the 1%. The super-rich haven't just bought the exclusive addresses – they've bought our whole system - and are running it for themselves.

"The lack of a national health care system is one of the greatest financial burdens America faces."
 ~Kiefer Sutherland, Healthcare Movie narrator

"Why can't the world be like a summer day, when I thought that health care would be an ethical decision and wars existed only to be stopped?"
 ~Madeleine M. Kunin

"Competition makes things come out right. Well, what does that mean in health care? More hospitals so they compete with each other. More doctors compete with each other. More pharmaceutical companies. We set up war. Wait a minute, let's talk about the patient. The patient doesn't need a war."
 ~Donald Berwick

"America's health care system is neither healthy, caring, nor a system."
 ~Walter Cronkite
